Centenary Bulletin 3 –

April 2007

The County Sunrise Ceremony

This will take place at the County Celebration Camp at Driffield Showground on Sunday 27th May at 8am.

Every member is requested to bring a 'Decorated Sunshine' to the ceremony!!!!

Have you completed your individual Sunshines? If so what about making a Section / Group Sunshine Banner.

The County's Celebration Parade, Thanksgiving Service and Picnic – Sunday 1st July 2007

The parade will gather in Pearson Park, Hull ready to leave at 2pm, going along Beverley Road, Ferensway into Carr Lane arriving at the City Hall for the 3pm Service.

An area will be cordoned off for parking of mini buses/coaches etc. We are being encouraged to use mini buses and coaches, not cars for environmental reasons and space.

Have you booked your transport yet?

For those who are not familiar with the route a map is currently being circulated to the DC's and will be available on the County Website soon.

Local Sunrise Ceremonies – 8am 1st August 2007

Have you registered your local Sunrise Ceremony on the National Interactive Map yet?

Follow the link

Have you thought about sharing your Ceremony with other Districts? It would be a great way of involving past Scouters and Supporters in the Centenary Celebrations; you never know it may act as the trigger for the future.

NB If you are on holiday on the 1st August you don't have to miss out. A national interactive map has been created to enable everyone to participate by identifying events taking place near their holiday destination.

Proms in the Park – 1st September 2007

The Proms in the Park event is being held at Raywell Park on evening of Saturday 1st September.

This is an event for Scouting families and friends. It will also be open to members of the general public.

Tickets will be available from Hull City Hall Box Office either by telephone or in person, at the end of May 2007.

HoHo – Home Hospitality

A contingent of 60 Scouts from South Korea is being hosted in the County directly after the 21st World Scout Jamboree. The dates are 8th to the 11th August 2007. Our visitors have requested both family and group accommodation, to this end we will have recruited families and booked Raywell Park to meet their requirements.

The Raywell experience will be run by Marion Carrington ACC(ES) and her Explorer Scout Team. If there are any last minute family offers please contact the County HoHo Coordinator on 01724 860776 or county2007@humbersidescouts.org.uk.

Live07 – Festival of Scouting

On Saturday 24th November 2007
Two shows (matinee and evening - times to be confirmed) approx. 3 hours long 15,000 for each show.

Tickets are now available, using the booking form that can be downloaded from

<http://www.scouts.org.uk/live07/docs/live07.pdf>

Tickets are selling fast – Can you get a coach load?

Have you heard from your District Commissioner about preparing the District Flag?

All participants in the County Celebration Camp at Driffield will receive the 'Scouting 50p' coin as a gift from the County.

In our continued dialogue with the Royal Mint, we have established that there is a delay in the release date of the coin and will not be in the banks until the end of June 2007.

To avoid any disappointment each participant will receive a Certificate of Attendance, the coin will be forwarded to Groups when available.
